

FIELD OF SPORTS

HARVARD CALLS FOR CANDIDATES

Internal Warfare in College Athletics Makes Captain Dexter's Task Difficult.

CAMBRIDGE, MASS., December 28.—With indoor variety basketball practice starting after vacation, the prospects of the 1907 Harvard nine are beginning to attract the attention of the undergraduates.

Captain Dexter has already issued a call for material of all kinds to be ready, and, besides that, has been out digging after a head coach.

There is no such internal warfare in Harvard athletics, and more especially in basketball, that Captain Dexter is going to have his hands full to keep his team running smoothly. The material is undoubtedly there for an average good team.

But two positions are yet to be filled—first base and pitcher. These gaps have a surplus of material ready to enter the list, and it's all good.

For the twirling department, G. F. Greene, '05, is the only one who has been in the position for a year. He is perhaps the most reliable man. He is what might be termed an independent ballplayer—a novelty at Harvard—and if his best work doesn't satisfy the team in a game he is satisfied to wait until they send for him.

LINCOLN GOOD PITCHER. Carl E. Lincoln, '06, is another man who will go after the position. Lincoln has fair speed, a good spittling generally, and experience of class make him a good pitcher. He is a native of Lincoln, Mass., and is a member of the Lincoln Athletic Club.

For the twirling department, G. F. Greene, '05, is the only one who has been in the position for a year. He is perhaps the most reliable man. He is what might be termed an independent ballplayer—a novelty at Harvard—and if his best work doesn't satisfy the team in a game he is satisfied to wait until they send for him.

For the twirling department, G. F. Greene, '05, is the only one who has been in the position for a year. He is perhaps the most reliable man. He is what might be termed an independent ballplayer—a novelty at Harvard—and if his best work doesn't satisfy the team in a game he is satisfied to wait until they send for him.

For the twirling department, G. F. Greene, '05, is the only one who has been in the position for a year. He is perhaps the most reliable man. He is what might be termed an independent ballplayer—a novelty at Harvard—and if his best work doesn't satisfy the team in a game he is satisfied to wait until they send for him.

For the twirling department, G. F. Greene, '05, is the only one who has been in the position for a year. He is perhaps the most reliable man. He is what might be termed an independent ballplayer—a novelty at Harvard—and if his best work doesn't satisfy the team in a game he is satisfied to wait until they send for him.

For the twirling department, G. F. Greene, '05, is the only one who has been in the position for a year. He is perhaps the most reliable man. He is what might be termed an independent ballplayer—a novelty at Harvard—and if his best work doesn't satisfy the team in a game he is satisfied to wait until they send for him.

For the twirling department, G. F. Greene, '05, is the only one who has been in the position for a year. He is perhaps the most reliable man. He is what might be termed an independent ballplayer—a novelty at Harvard—and if his best work doesn't satisfy the team in a game he is satisfied to wait until they send for him.

For the twirling department, G. F. Greene, '05, is the only one who has been in the position for a year. He is perhaps the most reliable man. He is what might be termed an independent ballplayer—a novelty at Harvard—and if his best work doesn't satisfy the team in a game he is satisfied to wait until they send for him.

For the twirling department, G. F. Greene, '05, is the only one who has been in the position for a year. He is perhaps the most reliable man. He is what might be termed an independent ballplayer—a novelty at Harvard—and if his best work doesn't satisfy the team in a game he is satisfied to wait until they send for him.

For the twirling department, G. F. Greene, '05, is the only one who has been in the position for a year. He is perhaps the most reliable man. He is what might be termed an independent ballplayer—a novelty at Harvard—and if his best work doesn't satisfy the team in a game he is satisfied to wait until they send for him.

For the twirling department, G. F. Greene, '05, is the only one who has been in the position for a year. He is perhaps the most reliable man. He is what might be termed an independent ballplayer—a novelty at Harvard—and if his best work doesn't satisfy the team in a game he is satisfied to wait until they send for him.

For the twirling department, G. F. Greene, '05, is the only one who has been in the position for a year. He is perhaps the most reliable man. He is what might be termed an independent ballplayer—a novelty at Harvard—and if his best work doesn't satisfy the team in a game he is satisfied to wait until they send for him.

For the twirling department, G. F. Greene, '05, is the only one who has been in the position for a year. He is perhaps the most reliable man. He is what might be termed an independent ballplayer—a novelty at Harvard—and if his best work doesn't satisfy the team in a game he is satisfied to wait until they send for him.

For the twirling department, G. F. Greene, '05, is the only one who has been in the position for a year. He is perhaps the most reliable man. He is what might be termed an independent ballplayer—a novelty at Harvard—and if his best work doesn't satisfy the team in a game he is satisfied to wait until they send for him.

For the twirling department, G. F. Greene, '05, is the only one who has been in the position for a year. He is perhaps the most reliable man. He is what might be termed an independent ballplayer—a novelty at Harvard—and if his best work doesn't satisfy the team in a game he is satisfied to wait until they send for him.

For the twirling department, G. F. Greene, '05, is the only one who has been in the position for a year. He is perhaps the most reliable man. He is what might be termed an independent ballplayer—a novelty at Harvard—and if his best work doesn't satisfy the team in a game he is satisfied to wait until they send for him.

For the twirling department, G. F. Greene, '05, is the only one who has been in the position for a year. He is perhaps the most reliable man. He is what might be termed an independent ballplayer—a novelty at Harvard—and if his best work doesn't satisfy the team in a game he is satisfied to wait until they send for him.

For the twirling department, G. F. Greene, '05, is the only one who has been in the position for a year. He is perhaps the most reliable man. He is what might be termed an independent ballplayer—a novelty at Harvard—and if his best work doesn't satisfy the team in a game he is satisfied to wait until they send for him.

For the twirling department, G. F. Greene, '05, is the only one who has been in the position for a year. He is perhaps the most reliable man. He is what might be termed an independent ballplayer—a novelty at Harvard—and if his best work doesn't satisfy the team in a game he is satisfied to wait until they send for him.

For the twirling department, G. F. Greene, '05, is the only one who has been in the position for a year. He is perhaps the most reliable man. He is what might be termed an independent ballplayer—a novelty at Harvard—and if his best work doesn't satisfy the team in a game he is satisfied to wait until they send for him.

For the twirling department, G. F. Greene, '05, is the only one who has been in the position for a year. He is perhaps the most reliable man. He is what might be termed an independent ballplayer—a novelty at Harvard—and if his best work doesn't satisfy the team in a game he is satisfied to wait until they send for him.

For the twirling department, G. F. Greene, '05, is the only one who has been in the position for a year. He is perhaps the most reliable man. He is what might be termed an independent ballplayer—a novelty at Harvard—and if his best work doesn't satisfy the team in a game he is satisfied to wait until they send for him.

For the twirling department, G. F. Greene, '05, is the only one who has been in the position for a year. He is perhaps the most reliable man. He is what might be termed an independent ballplayer—a novelty at Harvard—and if his best work doesn't satisfy the team in a game he is satisfied to wait until they send for him.

For the twirling department, G. F. Greene, '05, is the only one who has been in the position for a year. He is perhaps the most reliable man. He is what might be termed an independent ballplayer—a novelty at Harvard—and if his best work doesn't satisfy the team in a game he is satisfied to wait until they send for him.

For the twirling department, G. F. Greene, '05, is the only one who has been in the position for a year. He is perhaps the most reliable man. He is what might be termed an independent ballplayer—a novelty at Harvard—and if his best work doesn't satisfy the team in a game he is satisfied to wait until they send for him.

PRIZE-RING ARTIST TO FIGHT HERBERT

Coplin and Herbert Not Ready to Meet in the Ring.

Coplin and Herbert will not fight until after February 1st. Herbert says he cannot get into condition for a match until this time, and that he needs more exercise. He is working hard now and is taking on each every day.

Both fighters weighed one day this week and there was not a pound difference between them. Each went over the forty mark. And yet both are in the best of condition.

Coplin says he is in good condition now, and would be willing to have the mill pulled off any night. He is anxious to meet Herbert and to settle the dispute as to which is the best man.

Herb is in favor of Coplin, although there is considerable Herbert money about.

Both fighters weighed one day this week and there was not a pound difference between them. Each went over the forty mark. And yet both are in the best of condition.

Coplin says he is in good condition now, and would be willing to have the mill pulled off any night. He is anxious to meet Herbert and to settle the dispute as to which is the best man.

Herb is in favor of Coplin, although there is considerable Herbert money about.

Both fighters weighed one day this week and there was not a pound difference between them. Each went over the forty mark. And yet both are in the best of condition.

Coplin says he is in good condition now, and would be willing to have the mill pulled off any night. He is anxious to meet Herbert and to settle the dispute as to which is the best man.

Herb is in favor of Coplin, although there is considerable Herbert money about.

Both fighters weighed one day this week and there was not a pound difference between them. Each went over the forty mark. And yet both are in the best of condition.

Coplin says he is in good condition now, and would be willing to have the mill pulled off any night. He is anxious to meet Herbert and to settle the dispute as to which is the best man.

Herb is in favor of Coplin, although there is considerable Herbert money about.

Both fighters weighed one day this week and there was not a pound difference between them. Each went over the forty mark. And yet both are in the best of condition.

Coplin says he is in good condition now, and would be willing to have the mill pulled off any night. He is anxious to meet Herbert and to settle the dispute as to which is the best man.

Herb is in favor of Coplin, although there is considerable Herbert money about.

Both fighters weighed one day this week and there was not a pound difference between them. Each went over the forty mark. And yet both are in the best of condition.

Coplin says he is in good condition now, and would be willing to have the mill pulled off any night. He is anxious to meet Herbert and to settle the dispute as to which is the best man.

Herb is in favor of Coplin, although there is considerable Herbert money about.

Both fighters weighed one day this week and there was not a pound difference between them. Each went over the forty mark. And yet both are in the best of condition.

Coplin says he is in good condition now, and would be willing to have the mill pulled off any night. He is anxious to meet Herbert and to settle the dispute as to which is the best man.

Herb is in favor of Coplin, although there is considerable Herbert money about.

Both fighters weighed one day this week and there was not a pound difference between them. Each went over the forty mark. And yet both are in the best of condition.

Coplin says he is in good condition now, and would be willing to have the mill pulled off any night. He is anxious to meet Herbert and to settle the dispute as to which is the best man.

Herb is in favor of Coplin, although there is considerable Herbert money about.

Both fighters weighed one day this week and there was not a pound difference between them. Each went over the forty mark. And yet both are in the best of condition.

Coplin says he is in good condition now, and would be willing to have the mill pulled off any night. He is anxious to meet Herbert and to settle the dispute as to which is the best man.

Herb is in favor of Coplin, although there is considerable Herbert money about.

Both fighters weighed one day this week and there was not a pound difference between them. Each went over the forty mark. And yet both are in the best of condition.

Coplin says he is in good condition now, and would be willing to have the mill pulled off any night. He is anxious to meet Herbert and to settle the dispute as to which is the best man.

Herb is in favor of Coplin, although there is considerable Herbert money about.

Both fighters weighed one day this week and there was not a pound difference between them. Each went over the forty mark. And yet both are in the best of condition.

Coplin says he is in good condition now, and would be willing to have the mill pulled off any night. He is anxious to meet Herbert and to settle the dispute as to which is the best man.

Herb is in favor of Coplin, although there is considerable Herbert money about.

Both fighters weighed one day this week and there was not a pound difference between them. Each went over the forty mark. And yet both are in the best of condition.

"WINNERS" AND SPORTS GO BROKE

Judge Burroughs, a 15 to 1 Shot, Lopes Home in the First Event.

NEW ORLEANS, LA., December 28.—In the first race at the Fair Grounds today some good sized wagers were made on Judge Burroughs, who was 15 to 1.

Second race—five furlongs—Judge Burroughs (15 to 1) first, Lomax (16 to 1) second, John Peters (8 to 1) third. Time 1:23 1/2.

Third race—six furlongs—Pity (20 to 1) first, Toboggan (4 to 1) second, Lomax (16 to 1) third. Time 1:44 1/2.

Fourth race—mile—Kitty Platt (3 to 1) first, Omar Khyam (5 to 1) second, Delphie (8 to 1) third. Time 1:44 1/2.

Fifth race—five furlongs—Sir Marmalade (7 to 1) first, Billy Vortress (5 to 1) second, Delphie (8 to 1) third. Time 1:23 1/2.

Sixth race—mile and a sixteenth—Jacky Charm (9 to 1) first, Mr. McCher (11 to 1) second, Lena J (12 to 1) third. Time 1:46 1/2.

PINEHURST GOLF. A Week of Sport on the Crack Southern Links.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) PINEHURST, N. C., December 28.—Easy matches were the rule in the first and second match play rounds of the annual holiday week golf tournament played today, and as a result C. L. Becker, of Woodland Golf Club, Ashburnham, Mass., and Cleveland H. Dodge, who pledged unimproved city property, valued at $50,000, Mr. Fairchild is at present in Europe. The court assumed Mr. Perkins had double the value of the property, but he replied that he preferred it that way.

Six indictments were returned against each of the two defendants, but all are based on the same transaction, known as the "Prussian loan" and charged with the charge of forgery being the falsification of bookkeeping entries. It is alleged that certain railroad stocks were transferred by the insurance company to the security and Trust Company in order to comply with the Prussian law, but that the transfer was not bona fide.

Helped Policyholders. The grand jury, coupled with the indictments presented in which the jurors placed themselves on record as being convinced that the acts charged against them, Messrs. Perkins and Fairchild were "influenced by a desire to benefit the policyholders." The grand jury further says the indictments were returned only under a strict interpretation of the law, and it was laid down to them by District Attorney Jerome.

The statement, as it was presented to Recorder Goff, was an official confirmation of the reports which had spread that the grand jury was in session, to the effect that the jurors were not at all convinced by the evidence placed before them that a crime had been committed in the second "Prussian loan" transaction.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

Second round—Becker beat Prescott, 1 up; Lomax beat Lightfoot, 4 and 3; Fleming beat White, 1 up.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

INSURANCE MEN ARE INDICTED

George W. Perkins, Partner J. P. Morgan, and Charles S. Fairchild, Charged with Forgery.

PERKINS QUICKLY BAILED

Fairchild in Europe—The Charge is Forgery Touching the Prussian Loan.

NEW YORK, December 28.—The grand jury, which for the past month has been investigating the affairs of the New York Life Insurance Company, today returned indictments, charging forgery in the third degree against George W. Perkins, former vice-president of the New York Life and a member of the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co., and Charles S. Fairchild, a former Secretary of the Treasury, president of the New York Security and Trust Company (now out of existence), and a member of the finance committee of the insurance company.

Mr. Perkins was in court when the indictments were announced. He was formally arraigned, entered a plea of not guilty, and gave bond in the sum of $100,000, his sureties being J. P. Morgan, Jr., who phoned him, and the value of the law, and it was laid down to them by District Attorney Jerome.

Helped Policyholders. The grand jury, coupled with the indictments presented in which the jurors placed themselves on record as being convinced that the acts charged against them, Messrs. Perkins and Fairchild were "influenced by a desire to benefit the policyholders." The grand jury further says the indictments were returned only under a strict interpretation of the law, and it was laid down to them by District Attorney Jerome.

The statement, as it was presented to Recorder Goff, was an official confirmation of the reports which had spread that the grand jury was in session, to the effect that the jurors were not at all convinced by the evidence placed before them that a crime had been committed in the second "Prussian loan" transaction.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

Consolidation—Bill beat Cotton by default; Johnson beat Spalding, 4 and 3; Dr. Holland beat Lyon, 4 and 3; Taft beat Ormiston, 3 and 1.

superintendent of motive power for the Pennsylvania Railroad.

He became general superintendent of the Pennsylvania in 1870, and general manager of the lines east of Pittsburgh from 1871 to 1874. In 1874 he was elected to the position of third vice-president of the Pennsylvania, and in 1880 he was made first vice-president, resigning that position September 30, 1882 and September 12, 1883, was made a director of the company. In 1899, after seventeen years of retirement, Mr. Cassatt became president of the road, succeeding Frank Thompson.

Mr. Cassatt was owner of Chesterbrook stock farm, and his country home was at Chesterbrook, Pa. his town home being at 292 South Rittenhouse Square.

The greatest railroad man of his day was first of all an accomplished civil engineer, who worked hard and played hard. His quiet moments were spent in his library, which was